Nancy Ames has an interest in doing her job as smoothly and efficiently as possible, for her own peace of mind and so that she will be perceived as competent by her supervisor. She also has an interest in maintaining good professional relationships with all those with whom she works since communication is critical to carrying out her job. Mr. Ames was arrested on Feb. 20 is accused of working for Moscow since at least 1985 and in the process betraying at least 10 foreign agents working for the United States, officials said. There may be no connection whatsoever, but the possibility must be explored. Consider the case of Mr. Yurchenko, the deputy chief of Soviet intelligence operations against the United States, who appeared to have defected to Washington in August 1985 but suddenly returned to Moscow three months later.
